

Attention Center Line Prep Parents:

There is an important Google Meet update. This update is immediate and your scholar will begin seeing this update or may already have seen this update.

1. For scholars, all Google Meets will now initially load with the camera off by default.
2. This should have no effect on the camera on/off button. Scholars will be instructed to manually turn their camera on after they've joined the class by pressing the red camera icon.
 - a. This DOES NOT mean your scholar's computer is broken. You do not need to report this change to the school, your scholar's teacher, or the technology coordinator.
3. This update was made primarily to mitigate safety and privacy concerns, and secondarily as an attempt to help speed up the loading process of entering a meeting with limited bandwidth.

*Your scholar will begin seeing the following message upon logging in to each of their Google Meet sessions:
